16 strings, 8 dancing feet and 4 voices with 1 aim: to make classical music wickedly funny and fantastically exhilarating for everyone, young and old. Graffiti Classics bursts the elitist boundaries of the traditional string quartet with its hilarious all-singing, all-dancing musical comedy show.

It's a classical concert, a gypsy-folk romp, an opera, a stand-up comedy set and a brilliant dance show all rolled into one! There really is something for everyone and Graffiti Classics never fails to get audiences laughing, clapping and singing along. Kids and adults alike love the uplifting and virtuosic variety of musical styles, all tied together with cheeky audience interaction.

Graffiti Classics was founded by Irishman Cathal Ó Duill whilst street performing in London's Covent Garden. He realized that classical music could be made fun for everyone through interaction and comedy. Having honed its craft on London's streets, Graffiti Classics has developed a world-class virtuosic show that offers a wickedly refreshing alternative to the stuffy elitist perception of classical concerts. The band is now in hot demand all over the world and the show is loved by everyone, whatever their age and musical inclination.

Graffiti Classics has a large international following, having performed regularly across the globe in Singapore, Malaysia, Vietnam, Tunisia, Sweden, Holland, Estonia, Spain, Italy, Norway, Denmark, Greece and Ireland. Graffiti's versatile show provides the ideal entertainment at a huge variety of events, with appearances ranging from festivals, cruise-ships and concert halls to prisons, hospitals and schools; from weddings and parties to theatres and corporate events. 2016 saw three tours to Taiwan and a two week tour across the length and breadth of Ireland.

The taking of photographs and the use of recording equipment of any kind during performances is strictly prohibited.
