The Rat Pack of Opera!

Scott, Paul & Jem are Tenors Un Limited – the Rat Pack of Opera. They are the UK's original classical crossover man-band and have been performing together for over 10 years. The guys have been touring the world with their own take on popular-classical repertoire and their show is unlike any other in the 'classical-crossover' genre. The clever combination of soaring vocals and lush harmonies fused with fun, personality, a sense of humour and a definite 'joie de vivre' will make you glad you came.

This show truly has 'something for everyone' and showcases an eclectic selection of some of the best-loved melodies from the worlds of opera, musical theatre & pop; Ed Sheeran's heartfelt love song Thinking Out Loud and

John Woolridge Piano

Mr. John Woolridge is a seasoned performing artist, composer and arranger. A graduate of the Berklee College of Music, Mr. Woolridge has deep roots in jazz and improvisational music but always enjoys creating and performing in various media. His first performance as conductor of an orchestra and chorus was in Joy Blackett's presentation "This Rough Magic" and "Porgy and Bess" with featured soloists William Warfield, famed Bass-Baritone from the Broadway production and Ms. Joy Blackett. Best known for composing and producing "Proud to be Bermudian", he has also co-written scores for two musicals, and has recently completed a film score for a tribute to Bermudian author Brian Burland. An educator in the public school system for over 20 years, he loves working with young people. A man of passionate faith, Mr. Woolridge acknowledges his gifting comes from God. Over the years he has performed on stage with many local and international artists and is honoured to have the privilege to share the stage with these talented gentlemen.
