Judges

Heather Nova has had a 25 year career in the music industry as a singer/songwriter. She has released 9 studio albums, has had her music featured in films and tv, and she tours extensively. She has a passion for encouraging and inspiring young artists to pursue their talents and follow their dreams.

Gita Blakeney Saltus has two critically acclaimed albums. She has opened for: Jonathan Butler, Gladys Knight, and The Manhattan Transfer. She has serenaded music legends, Isaac Hayes at the Copacabana in NYC, and at the 2009 Bermuda Music Festival, Quincy Jones alongside, James Ingram, Patti Austin, Kenny Rogers and Siedah Garrett.

Sheila Smith is a well-known local musician. Sheila opened alongside Gita Blakeney-Saltus for The Manhattan Transfer at the start of this year's Bermuda Festival. She is proud to say that she has been doing what she loves for the past three decades.

The taking of photographs and the use of recording equipment of any kind is strictly prohibited during performances.
