The Amazing Bubble Man

Louis Pearl

Multi Instrumentalist

Jet Black Pearl

Louis Pearl began his career performing on the streets of Berkeley CA in 1980. He had invented a toy, The Bubble Trumpet, that made large bubbles. He took his box of trumpets and found that, while hawking his wares, he gathered crowds of eager bubble lovers. This led to a merger of street performing with toy distribution. Both sides of the business grew, and Louis quickly learned lots of bubble tricks that could only be performed indoors out of the wind. His company eventually grew to have 147 products with worldwide distribution, but Louis' found that his true calling was as a stage performer. In 2002, he sold Tangent Toy Co. and became a full time performer. He now travels the world doing shows that only he can do, and is often accompanied by the music of Jet Black Pearl.

Jet Black Pearl (Jetty Swart) was born in the Netherlands and has performed on more than a thousand stages all over the world. She started her musical career in France, where she recorded two records and won awards from SACEM and several songwriter competitions. Before your own eyes, she creates loops and grooves of flute, plastic bottles, vocal percussion and harmonies while playing her accordion. She adapts and times the music to the amazing Bubble Man's bubbles growing and bursting.

The taking of photographs and the use of recording equipment of any kind is strictly prohibited during performances.

REVIEWS

"Funniest Bubble Show on Earth."

- SFgate.com

"It's a fantastic show. Louis Pearl playfully forms bubbles beyond imagination, and engages the audience with his easygoing nonverbal slapstick."

"Louis Pearl - aka The Amazing Bubble Man - truly deserves his title. Most of the show is accompanied by gasps and awes...and that's just the adults. Kids can be heard giggling with excitement."

"This show captivated its young audience and the adults loved it as well. Highly recommended."
